Burke Dales named to football All-Canadian team

Burke Dales, a member of the 2001 Concordia football team, was named to the CIS All-Canadian team at an awards banquet held in Toronto Nov. 29.

The fifth-year punter had a 41.5 average this year. With the longest being 74 yards. He's a three-time conference all-star punter. Dales also played slotback in two games this season and had one touchdown.

Athletic talent runs in his family. Dales' sister, Stacey, plays on the women's basketball team at Oklahoma University and was member of the Canadian women's basketball entry at the 2000 Summer Olympics in Sydney. His cousin, Jason Arnott, plays hockey for the New Jersey Devils.

Stinger head coach Gerry McGrath says "Burke is probably the best athlete on our football team. I feel Burke is a premier punter in the CIS. He has a strong leg, he gets great hang time and places the ball fairly well."
